ActOne Automate:

Advanced Automation
with Domain Expertise

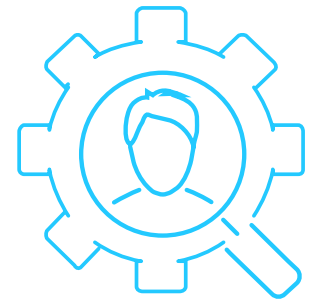

Imagine a world where financial crime and compliance investigations processes were so efficient, investigators and analysts could spend all of their valuable time focusing on impactful, worthwhile analysis.

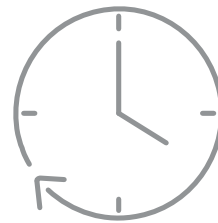

Organizations need help realizing efficiency gains, as investigations are becoming more complex and repetitive tasks are increasing exponentially.

What if we had a solution that enables machines to do the ordinary so people can do the extraordinary?

Reject the status quo. Imagine a new possibility:

↓ 90%
reduction in evidence gathering processes for investigations

↓ 60%
decrease in regulatory filing time

More efficiency gains. Happier employees.

Experience dramatic increases in productivity and optimize business processes with ActOne Automate, NICE Actimize's comprehensive domain-specific automation capability that is embedded in the ActOne case management platform.

ActOne Automate takes the time, effort and cost of repetitive routine tasks out of the equation, so that your investigators can focus on more complex and impactful tasks.

Identify Processes Ripe for Automation

Identify processes within analysts' desktop actions that can be automated, without conducting exhaustive analysis. This data-first, analytics approach leverages machine learning and analyzes ActOne user behaviors and actions, providing reports and guidance on the activities that can be automated.

Measure Investigations Operation

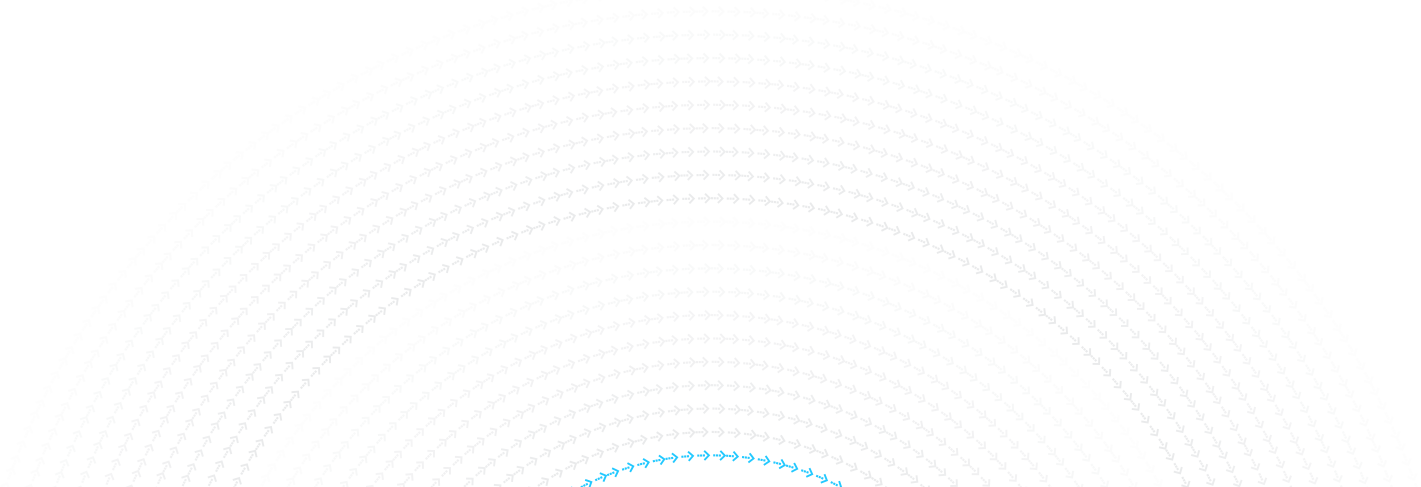

Gain greater insight into operational metrics and help pinpoint potential roadblocks within the workflow, while identifying areas with manual intensive tasks that should be automated.

Intelligence in Automation

Enable humans to reach their highest potential in the workplace. NEVA's (NICE Employee Virtual Attendant) intelligent interface is driven by cognitive technology, ensuring that she is ready to streamline processes 24x7. Fully interactive and responsive, she has built-in domain expertise and intelligence to respond to certain mouse clicks or keyboard strokes, automatically taking action to support and guide humans in real time.

Automate Tasks with Customization

Empower tech-savvy users to build and integrate flexible add-ons to ActOne, enabling custom-code features that automate processes within the workflow.
